PEAK TEAMS LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMMES

Clients say that nothing engages emotions, feelings and behaviour like the Peak Teams video-based interactive virtual adventures.

What is a virtual adventure?

During a virtual adventure, business teams are challenged with real-life scenarios that Peak Teams' facilitators have filmed in some of the most extreme and spectacular places on the planet; climbing snow covered mountains, on safari in Africa or surfing around the world.

These scenarios, combined with spectacular footage, personal stories and expert facilitation provide powerful learning experiences. As the real-life scenarios unfold on the big screen, the teams' structure and leadership will be placed under real pressure to reveal key learnings.

Used by the world's leading organisations because they deliver real results, every time.

I just wanted to say a massive thank you - your ability to be flexible and professional really took a weight off us. It was great having you around and we really appreciate you pulling out all the stops to make sure it ran smoothly - you were amazing! - Tribe Marketing (Aus)

Thanks for interpreting our brief perfectly - MSD (NZ)

I honestly cannot express to you how appreciative I am of the HQ team. When I asked you to jump you said - “how high?!” You are champions and make us look good. Thank you so much for all of your support, dilligence & hard work - CI Events (Aus)

I had the pleasure of working on two events with HQNZ. They were lovely to partner with - accommodating, responsible, thoughtful & professional - a meeting planners dream! - Event Studio (USA)

---

I am not sure of the exact ingredients, but when you’re around a company with the X factor you just feel it & you, HQNZ, have it. Thank you for making our conference so great. Delegate - Advisernet Conference 2015 (NZ)

We cannot thank you enough for what you produced for our group in Queenstown. All of your suggestions and preparation were first class and your day-to-day servicing was simply exceptional. We have taken large VIP groups away before, but none with the level of dedication and “nothings too much trouble” attitude that you displayed for us each and every day. - Channel 9, (Aus)

---

I just wanted to say a huge thank you to you and your team for an exceptional job on our BMW Golf Cup Event. You organised everything so perfectly and nothing was too much trouble. We’ve had so many compliments! - BMW (Aus)
