AUCKLAND'S MOST ICONIC VENUE

Haere Mai. Tāmaki Paenga Hira Auckland War Memorial Museum welcomes you.

Sitting proudly amongst the grounds of the Pukekawa Auckland Domain, Auckland Museum provides a spectacular venue for your next corporate function.

With its striking neo-classical architecture and majestic columns, the Museum is one of Auckland's premier event locations. Whether you're hosting a formal dinner party, a small conference or seminar, or planning your dream wedding, you'll find the venue to suit your event in one of Auckland's most iconic buildings.

You and your guests are welcome to explore the Museum after hours, with private tours of the galleries or a performance from our Māori cultural performers. Unique gifts for your guests are available from the Museum Store.

EVENT CENTRE

Celebrate your next event under the copper dome on the top of the Museum. The circular, pillarless room is enclosed with glass and provides near 360° views of the city, harbour and Hauraki Gulf.

AUDITORIUM & LOBBY

The Auditorium is a unique, purpose-built venue for conferences, lectures and presentations. It sits within the giant Fijian Kauri bowl 'suspended' in the Atrium. Each leather bound seat has a fold out tray for note-taking, and a clear sightline to the speaker or performer. Venue hire includes standard AV and lighting requirements. The adjacent lobby space is perfect for registrations, standing style catering and networking occasions.

CHAMPAGNE MEZZANINE

Add an extra touch of elegance to your occasion. Positioned in the heart of the Museum and above the Grand Foyer, the Champagne Mezzanine is the Museum's latest addition to the suite of exceptional spaces for hire. Celebrate with champagne here before dinner in the Grand Foyer, or choose to use the space exclusively.
