The Kinloch Club Lodge

AFTER A ROUND ON THIS CHALLENGING JACK NICKLAUS SIGNATURE COURSE NEAR TAUPO, SETTLE BACK IN THE CLUBHOUSE BAR – OR STAY OVER AND DINE IN LUXURY.

If it's relaxed dining or a beer you're after before, during or after your round, the clubhouse – with full catering and bar facilities available – is perfect. While awaiting your meal or bar snack, you can sit either indoors in comfortable surroundings or outside on the sun-drenched wooden deck and admire either the first-class practice range or glimpses of the Jack Nicklaus Signature golf course, one of New Zealand's finest.

The clubhouse's daily menu has a mouth-watering range of dishes, which can be washed down with a selection of beers and some of New Zealand's best wines.

If it's fine dining you're after, you'll need to book a room in the luxurious Lodge at The Kinloch Club; its restaurant and cosy lounge bar have stupendous views of the scenic championship course and surrounding countryside – all the way to Lake Taupo.

The main restaurant is à la carte, the produce sourced from the owner's private 2,000-hectare estate, Treetops, near Rotorua. The philosophy behind the dishes created at the lodge is 'estate to plate' and, where possible, organic. Exquisite dishes, many that resemble edible works of art, are created by executive chef Jeremy Talbot. □
